Take Back to His Wife in Virginia.

HUMBERT FRAUD HORSE SHOW, IMITATED HERE? | RECORD-BREAKER

Mrs. Jirene G. Banfield, Beauti- In Number of Entries, Breeding ful and Twenty-eight, Accused of Swindling Winthrop Hotel Proprietor Out of $1,000.

Detective Says Woman Fraudulenti Showed She Had Estate of $200,-000 Tied Up by Litigation in Order to Get the Thousand.

What the police say is a realistic PROGRAMME FOR counterpart of the famous Humbert swindle in Paris was brought to light in Yorkville Court this morning by the arraignment of Mrs. Jirene G. Banfield on a charge of grand larceny. She was accused of defrauding Charles B. Mor-ris, proprietor of the Hotel Winthrop, ceeding at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Seventh avenue, out of $1,000 by representing that she had an estate of more than $200,000 tied up temporarily by litigation.

Mrs. Banfield is an exceptionally handsome woman of twenty-eight years. She was arrested to-day at the St. Laurent Hotel, at Seventy-second street and Lexington avenue. When arraigned in court, Mrs. Banfield said that her home was at Huntington, L. I., and that her was at Huntington, L. I., and that her husband, Edward, kept a livery stable at No. 112 East Fifth street, Manhattan, and that he was well-to-do. field was in court and went on his wife's bond for $2,600, when the Magistrate done no wrong.

According to Detective Kidney, who arrested her. Mrs. Bandeld on March II. 1891, secured $1,009 from Mr. Morris hy telling of her was: properties in Illinois and Montana, which would soon behers. She also showed a Chicago bankbook with deposits or $9,700, which she said she could not get just then.

Mr. Morris later found that the woman's story was not true, he said, and after trying to get his $1,000 back, got a warrant for her.

Hr. Mr. Morris later found that the woman's story was not true, he said, and after trying to get his $1,000 back, got a warrant for her.

LAWYER KNOX IN TROUBLE.

Woman Accuses Him of Illegally Getting $500 from Her.

John N. Knox, a lawyer, with an of-fice at No. 16 Court street. Brooklyn, was arrested at his home. No. 692 President street, this afternoon, on a charge of having obtained illegally $500 from Mrs. Helen Bray, of No. 94 Coffee

The police claim that Knox discovered that Mrs. Bray had a mortgage on some property, and represented nimself as the holder of the mortgage. He threatened, they say, to foreclose, if the $500 was not forthcoming at once, and Mrs. Bray sent him that amount. He denied the charge and was sent to the Adams Street Police Station by Magistrate Tighe.

HURT IN TROLLEY SMASH.

Car Leaves Track in Allegheny and Turns Over.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 22.-A traction car on he Avalon line jumped the track in Allegheny early to-day, dashed over the curb and was overturned.

There were about thirty-five people aboard and all were badly shaken up, but only six were seriously injured.

They were taken to the Allegheny Hospital. All will recover. The accident was caused by the failure of the brake and Crowds Horse Exhibition of 1902 Has Eclipsed All Pre-

Stallion Monte Carlo Wins the Blue Ribbon Over a Host of

THIS EVENING.

Probably because it was the last day of the Horse Show, and they wished to adjourned the examination until Dec. 3. spectators assembled in larger numbers The woman pleaded not guilty, but said at the morning session of the show that when she was privileged to tell her than at any time during the week. From every point of view the Eighteenth Annual Horse Show has been

Fellowes admitted so much yesterday, and it was confirmed by Mr. John G. Heckscher this morning, "I can't tell you just how many people have been here during the week," said Mr. Heckscher, his face all smiles, "but the number is large-very large."

West Pointers at the Show.

To-day the cadets from the graduat ing class at West Point are the guests of the association. Each year for the past two or three years they have been specially invited and the invitation is eagerly accepted.

Shetland ponies were the first to take the ring this morning, ten of them show-ing for the prizes offered in Class 88 for Monte Carlo, the grizzled hero of many a contest in Madison Square Garden ring would not be denied and beat his younger competitors and one older onefor Montreal, belonging to the same owner, Thomas L. Watt, is twenty-two years old-with ease. Chestnut, Charles Bunn's queer colored little pony which won in a harness class a couple of days ago, was exceedingly badly shown, and principally on this account ould do no better than the white ribbon for the highly commended. Moore Buys Fiery Danc.

Fiery Dane, the hackney stallion, by

Danesfort, which took second prize in QUAINT MR. PURCELL Class 24. In that class Fiery Dane was only just beaten by Gribthorpe Play mate, which subsequently won the championship. It is understood that the original condition of the sale was that the horse should win, but Mr. Moore was o pleased with his showing that he pur-hased him anyway. The price is not made public, but is said to be very

Some Other Exhibitors.

The event was one of the prettiest of week, for aside from Mrs. Donnelly ney were Mrs. A. M. Blaisdel, of New who drove Reginald Vanderbilt's pays; Mrs. W. E. Kopman, who handled Harry Payne Whitney's pair; Mrs. E. Beach, handling E. D. Jordan's chestnuts; Mrs. John Gerken, with her own Newsboy and Shopgirl; Miss Florence FALSE REPRESENTATIONS? WEST POINT CADETS CALL. Biair, with Mrs. Moore's pair; Mrs. J. S. Brattors, in charge of Herbert Copell's pair, and Miss Bella Beach, driv-Thomas E. Watts's Veteran Shetland ing Alfred Vanderbilt's Cinderella and Society had something new to talk of in the appearance of Miss Alice Roosevelt The President's daughter appeared with Miss Jean Reid and Miss Helen Roosevelt and walked along the promenade, visiting in several of the boxes. Miss Roosevelt was slapply gewined in pale blue with white insertion of lace and a large wite picture hat. She was the most noticed young woman in the boxes.

James R. Purcell, the old, white-haired exhibitor from Virginia, again won applause, but no ribbon. But the Southerner is by no means discouraged and will come again next year, determined to get a prize. Last night he was cheered lustily when his mount cantered into the ring.

While the other horses ceared and danced, Purcell's trotted quietly around the ring until ordered out. It had its fine points, but was unmistakably out of its class with the high steppers at the show. Helen Roosevelt and walked along the Harness Horse Class.

Twenty pairs of harness horses, over is ands and not exceeding 15 hands aches, were next brought upon the tan inches, were next brought upon the tanbark.

Judgment was rendered with regard to conformation, quality, style, all-around action and good page. The carriages were spiders, T-carts and phaetons. James Hobart More's Burlingham and Viceroy took the blue ribbon, Joseph E. Widener's Flower of Lynnewood and Coronation captured the red ribbon, and Jay F. Carlisle's Underwriter and Promoter won the yellow rosette. Reginald Vanderbilt drove his own entry, Muzette and Iris, and was greatly applauded by the small audience present, but failed to receive anything but honorable mention, J. Donnelly, the veteran driver, managed the prize winners. Mr. Widener drove his own entry, while C. Quick held the rehas over the third-prize winners.

Class 64, consisting of six pairs of Shetland ponies not exceeding 46 inches and three years old or over, were next entered. Mrs. E. F. Hawley's Aberdeen, of Pittsford, and Bressay, of Pittsford, were first. They were driven by F. Cook, Montreal and Monte Carlo, owned by Thomas L. Watt, were second, and Nimbus and Chestnut, Charles E. Bunn's entries, were third Thomas H. Watt, jr.'s Toronto, and Red Fox were highly commended.

The Awards.

as 80—Ponies Under Saddle.—Ponies, exng thirteen hands one inch and not exng fourteen hands two inches, three years or over: First, Jacquinta, br. m., 14.2. 7, first; owner, Mrs. G. Bauman, New York ascond, Columbia, cr. m., 14.2. 7 years; r. Miss Virginia Alexandre, New York third, Premier, b. g., 14.2. 8 years; r. Miss Mary Lindsay Carter, Warrenton, H. C., Irish Hobby, ch. m., 13.2. 6; owner, W. D. Grand, New York City, sa 108—Special Prize. Open only to horsecarts of the New York Street Cleaning Denett. To be judged on the condition of the whose quaint personality and string o eature of the Horse Show, announce aged at not getting any of the prize

ot of fun on my account," he said, "but ave taken home some kind of a ribbor

the finds that I have not taken all the next year.

is first appearance away from home is stock was shown in the cavalry

FAILS TO GET PRIZE. MOLINEUX WARNS MRS. MOLINEUX'S CARROTED WITH Too Bad, for He So Wanted One Ribbon to A PRISON FRIEND to the Tombs to-day. His object was to see Joseph Hackett, one of the prisoners with whom he became very friendly during his stay there. After a short talk with the Warden Molineux went up and spent threequarters of an hour with his prison friend. It has been reported that efforts her visit.

Had Been Asked to Disclose Secrets Learned from Murder Suspect in Tombs.

have been made to get Hackett to tell what he learned about the private affairs During Molineux's confinement in the combs he spent much of his time with Molineux's letters. He also acted as writing his plays. In return for this Molineux furnished im with many delicacies outside of the prison fare. It is said that since Molineux's release Hackett has been obliged to stick solely to the prison fare, and this he has not relished. Hackett is awaiting a second trial on forgery charge.

DIDN'T WAIT FOR VERDICT.

he Prisoner Walked Out of Court While the Jury Deliberated.

Just after the jury had gone out ourt to consider the case of Kivan ohrman, accused of having received tolen goods, the prisoner was missed. There were four constables in the than I showed, and if God spares my life I will be back again at the next show with them. There are finer horses in Virginia than were ever shown in New York, and the only trouble is the owners are not rich enough to pay the freight for their stock."

Mr. Purcell closely resembles the popular Santa Claus in appearance. He is a veteran of the civil war and nearly went wild in the Garden whenever the kand played "Dixie." His home is upon one of the great battle-fields and this is his first appearance away from home. Will stock was shown in the eavailry.

> WANT GRAND CENTRAL PETE. Police Seek the Old Swindler, Who Is at It Again.

A general alarm has been sent out by he police for Peter Lake, better known as "Grand Central Pete," who is wanted on a charge of swinding Marshal P.

CASE MAY FAIL. Report Is that Joseph Hackett Her Repeated and Extended Statements to the Press Have Offended Dakota's Sensation Divorce Colony.

WROTE PRISONER'S LETTERS MAY QUESTION RESIDENCE. REPORTER TRAILS THIEVES.

Roland B. Molineux paid another visit SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nev. 22.-The otoriety which Mrs. Roland B. Moli-Sloux Falls by her repeated and lengthy bed by four men at the Bowery and interviews in the newspapers about her Bayard street early to-day. prospective divorce from her husband has so offended the citizens of this city

tive on this point, anyway. They have squirmed before when rich seekers for of Molineux and it was surmised that divorce have come here and used the former murder suspect's object in all possible reserve to gain their ends, calling was to warn his friend not to Mrs. Molineux, that she had come merely for six months and for the sole pur-for six months and for the sole purpose of obtaining freedom from her husband is the last straw.

It is said on good legal authority that her effrontery in announcing herself as "a New York society woman" who has come here "to gain six months' residence for the purpose of getting a divorce," after which she expects to return to New York, has put a weapon in the hands of Molineux which would prevent her from gettling her freedom if he cares to contest the action.

Not only could Molineux's lawyers use her own declarations about her sojourn here to prove that her residence is not a bona-fide one, but it is possible that the Legislature, which meets Jan. 6, may take notice of the scandal and act in the matter. The danger of opposition to present conditions in this regard has never lapsed, and the Molineux scandal may be used to revive it.

KILLS BLUECOAT

Policeman Donohue, Separated by Far-Away Post from His Aged Parents, Grieves and Dies Suddenly While on Duty.

aration from his aged father and mother is the cause ascribed by his riends for the death of Policeman Henry J. Donohue, whose funeral will be held to-morrow from No. 192 South Second street, Williamsburg. He had been on the police force for eight years and was the only son of former Capt, William Donohue, of the Brooklyn Fire

Up to ten months ago Policeman Dono GOMPERS IS RE-ELECTED.

Chosen by the Federation Without Opposition.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22.—President Samuel Gompers was to-day re-elected President of the American Federation without opposition.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22.—President Samuel Gompers was to-day re-elected President of the American Federation without opposition.

SUNDAY WORLD WANTS WORK SUNDAY MORNING WONDERS.

Davidson, a well-known Brooklyn clubstanting Marshal P. Station. Then he was transferred to Fort Hamilton. Previous to his transfer he had never eaten a meal away from home and never slept out of his father's house, save when he was on duty at the worried about the separation from his parents, who are feeble, and made that there was a charge upon them. Mr. Davidson contributed $10 toward the charity and to-day learned that he had been duped.

Davidson, a well-known Brooklyn clubstanting Marshal P. Station. Then he was transferred to Fort Hamilton. Previous to his transfer he had never slept out of his father's house, save when he was on duty at the station. He worried about the separation from his parents, who are feeble, and made to any one of five precincts that would allow with to get home to his meals.

His request for transfers were unheeded and on Thursday last he dropped dead in the Fort Hamilton. Previous to his transfer he had never slept out of his father's house, save when he was on duty at the worried about the separation from his parents, who are feeble, and made the them that there was a charge upon them. Mr. Davidson contributed $10 toward the charity and to-day learned that he had been duped. hue was assigned to the Clymer Avenue

Man Held Up and Robbed of Watch and Diamond While a Dozen Look On, Too Dazed to Interfere.

John Wendelken, a grocer at No. 56 neux, of New York, has brought on Madison avenue, was garroted and rob-None attempted to interfere or call the police while Wendelken was being relieved of his watch, his diamond stud and his purse containing $75. Fred Van Crag, a reporter for a German paper, was among the onlookers, highwaymen, who gives his name as John Meyer, of No. 43 Avenue B, was arrested. Too Dazed to Resist.

Wendelken is a powerful man, but he was too dazed to make resistance, and the tight grip about his throat prevented his making outcry. He could see people passing and standing about and oudn't understand why none offered to assist him.

Van Crag, the reporter, was among those who passed while the robbery was oing on. He realized that being, unarmed, he would fare badly if he interfered, so he looked on, and as he passed up the street three of the men who had taken part in the hold-up slowly fol-lowed him. They were apparently not in the least apprehensive of arrest.

Van Crag walked until he met a policeman, but, fearing to call at him to arrest the trio, he told him in an undertone to follow after him. The policeman paid no attention, and Van Crag let the trio pass him and then shadowed them until they turned into Elizabeth street.

The Reporter Censured.

The Reporter Censured.

The reporter went into the Elizabeth street station and toid Sergt. McManus of the robbery and asked for a plain-clothes man. A policeman in uniform was sent out with him. Seeing him, the trio broke and ran. After an hour's search two men were arrested, but Van Crag could not identify them, and Sergt. McManus turned them loose after lecturing the reporter.

Then Van Crag went to the Elidides street station and toid of the robbery. A plain-clothes man was sent out with him to make a tour of the Bowery resorts. In No. 99 Bowery Van Crag picked up the man Meyer, whom he positively identified as one of the high-waymen. When he was brought to the station Wendelken was there, having gone to report the robbery. He also identified Meyer. Van Crag then located one of the witnesses of the hold-up, from whom the police- obtained the names of the quartet of highwaymen.

They say they will have all of them under arrest before night.

Meyer was later arraigned in Essex Market Court and was held in $1,000 bail for examination on Monday. In court he said he was a lithographer employed on Puck.

TOO COLD FOR SUICIDE.

o Mrs. Sechrest Didn't Drown Herself and Baby.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 22,-"I means to kill myself and baby, but the water was too cold." This was the explanation given by Mrs. Albert Sechrest of a note signed by her and thrown into a note signed by her and thrown into the river at Leavenworth, stating that she had drowned herself and baby. It was supposed she had committed suicide rather than be a witness for the State in the case of Dr. Louis Zorn, a dentist charged with killing her husband. Mrs. Sechrest was found later at the home of her parents here. She admitted she had been in hiding.

ark Twains

The Football Hero of 1902.

A Composite of Bruises and Fractures. The Year's Record Shown in an Interesting and Novel Way. Remarkable Statistics of the "Gentle" College Sport. Illustrated in 4 Colors.

Newsboy Lover the Hero of a Sensational Novel

By Gertrude Potter Daniels. Remarkable Study of Poverty by a Writer Who Has Spent Her Life Amid Luxury. The Book Was Suppressed.

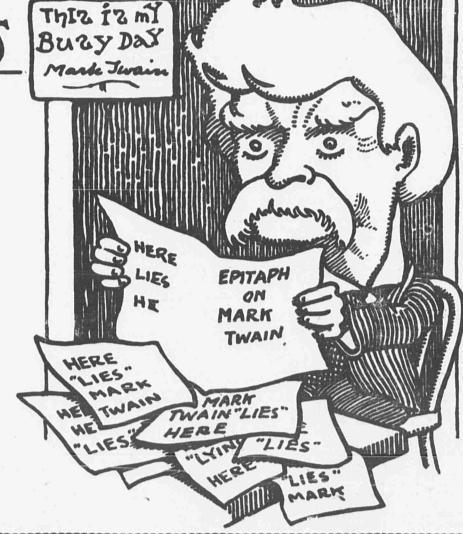

Biggest Criminal on Record Strangled by Steam Power.

How Mandarin the Elephant Was Executed at Midnight.

A Girl Who Loops the Loop Till You Are Dizzy.

Hair-Raising Feat of a Young Woman Explained.

Harriet Hubbard Ayer's Unequalled Page for Women.

The Great Humorist, Desirous of Learning What People Think of Him, Offers a Prize for HIS "OBITUARY NOTICE," to Be Written in Advance of His Demise.

HUMORISTS DO HIM TRIBUTE.

The Sunday World Conducts the Contest, and Presents as the First Competitors Wm. Gillette ("Sherlock Holmes"), Alfred Henry Lewis, Roy L. McCardell, Geo. V. Hobart ("Dinkelspiel"), Lee Fairchild, Marieta Holley, Josephine

loke on Himself

The Wonders of New York.

Little Journeys Around the Gigantic Metropolis, Under the Sunday World's Guidance, for Manhattanites Who Don't Know Their New York. No. 5 .- The Greatest Aquarium in the World.

A Midwinter Dinner with Wild Beasts.

Most Astonishing Repast Since the Days of Noah.

A Centenarian Athlete.

Surprising Case of Capt. Diamond, Who Tells Why He Is 100 Years Young. His Health Methods Illustrated.

Grover Cleveland on the Future of the Democratic Party—

A Notable Article, in TO-MORROW'S SUNDAY WORLD.

$50.00 in Prizes.

Another Page of "PUZZLE LESSONS," Which You Should Try to Solve. Cash Prizes for the Successful Ones.

O-MORROW'S